UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

CLERK, U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

Bryan S. Reichel,
Petitioner,

v.

Case # 11-32923

MaryJo Jensen/Carter,
Respondent.

MOTION TO STAY ALL PROCEEDINGS

Bryan S. Reichel, petitioner, pro se, (hereinafter "Reichel"), does hereby move this Honorable Court in his Motion to Stay Any and All Proceedings in the above referenced case # 11-32923 for period of up to 90 days and offers the following in support THEREOF;

1. Reichel filed Chapter 7 on April 29, 2011.
2. Reichel - both as a debtor and as an assignee of a claim, has timely filed objections to false proofs of claim in the above referenced case. The merits if those objections remain adjudicated as of this Motion.
3. Reichel has filed other critical motions relating to this case that also remain adjudicated on their merits as of this motion.
4. The BOP has told Reichel that he is being transferred. As part of the transfer process, Reichel is required to "pack out" all of his property including all of his legal work so the BOP can ship it to his final destination. The BOP transfer process, along with receiving his property and legal work could take up to 90 days. As such, Reichel will not have access to any of his legal work and will be unable to communicate with the Court.
5. Reichel anticipates that it could take up to 90 days to be transferred to his new destination and reorganize his legal work pertaining to this case.
7. There would be no prejudice to anyone by the Court's allowance of a "Stay" as requested, as no party including the Chapter 7 trustee has ever responded to any of Reichel's pro se Motions.

THEREFORE, Reichel respectfully requests this Honorable Court grant his request for a "Stay" on any and all Proceedings for up to 90 days in Case # 11-32923.

Respectfully submitted,

7/19/23
